More days in daze. More scripts, more novels. More pages and clammy business cards passed of in moist handshakes. More Melissa. More point-less shopping sprees and more people to please. More dusty blond boys and speedos.

10/12 Point

I keep on cracking jokes, right? Because I'm funny. I want to be funny. Only each time the punch-line falls flat. My delivery is off. I keep glancing between the menu and the fois gras printed out in rounded serifs and the waiter laughing politely, anxiously. I settle on the duck since it strikes me as funny somehow. She picks her teeth and nods.

8/10 Point

The 'clack' of the cab door snaps me back and I nervously glance up at the departures sign. Numerals slither rapidly as I scan the board. SK402 to Copenhagen. Exhausted i push through security – belt, shoes, watch, laptop and slump down at the nearest bar. I slip out my credit card, leaving it on the bar and pick at the polaroid with Melissa's number on the back. 8 digits, XXX and Melissa with a heart dotting the i.

6/8 Point

The tattoo guns passes around the table- A kid etches out 'MOMS' in blue biro ink laughing hysterically as the machine purrs across his forearm. I can see Melissa through the open door to the bathroom, perched on the toilet, a pair of boys briefs around her ankles, absentmindedly smoking a cigarette and blowing smoke rings; O followed by Q followed by O.
